

ABOUT THE STATE

Happenings of Interest from Different Sections.

Private Roy H. Roberts of Richford is named by the United States war department as among those slightly wounded in overseas service.

A daughter was born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Ray Fisher at the home of the latter's mother in Middlebury. Mr. Fisher, the noted baseball pitcher, is with the Cincinnati Nationals this year.

Fremont Brown of Lillieville has a sheep which gave birth to a freak lamb. There were two perfectly formed lambs, which were joined together at the shoulder and part of the body. The lamb had eight legs and only one head.

The 83d annual meeting of the Second Congregational church of Bennington was held May 1. The church has a membership of 478 and the absent list numbers 125. Mrs. George W. Keesehan has just entered upon her 42d year as church organist.

The Methodist, Baptist and Congregational churches in Hinesburg have united under the name, United church, with Rev. Charles H. Bennett of the Methodist church as pastor. The services will be divided up so that they will be held four months in each church.

The National Association of Wood Turners has filed articles of association in the office of the secretary of state for the purpose of looking after the welfare of the men of their vocation who are employed in Brandon. The papers are signed by L. C. Bump, G. H. Bump and Frank W. Willard.

Max Laraba, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Laraba of Enosburg Falls, during a short absence by his mother from a room in his home, drank from a tumbler containing washing fluid, the ingredients of which were mostly kerosene. His mouth and throat were badly burned but he will recover.

The Baptist parsonage in West Cornwall, occupied by Bert Rickert, a blacksmith, and his family, burned to the ground one day last week, while Mr. and Mrs. Rickert and two young children had gone to Forestdale with the body of an infant daughter for burial. A small fire left at home set fire to straw, which soon spread so it could not be checked. Part of the contents of the house were saved by neighbors.

J. H. W. Strubbe of Rutland has filed a petition in bankruptcy with the clerk of the United States court in that city. He has liabilities of $15,220.25 and assets of $25, claimed exempt. Lewis A. Day of Westminster also has filed a petition in bankruptcy, having 60 unsecured creditors, largely in Bellows Falls. Mr. Day, who is a laborer, has liabilities of $1,612.68 and assets of $200 exempt.

Mrs. Harriet P. Smith, widow of Columbus Smith, one of Addison county's wealthiest men, died at her home in Salisbury April 30, at the age of 86. By the terms of Mr. Smith's will, his large Salisbury estate of 700 acres was left for the use of the widow during her lifetime, after which it was to be converted into an old ladies' home, an arrangement which will now probably be carried out. Mrs. Smith's body was placed in the fine mausoleum on the estate, where the bodies of Mr. Smith and the two children had already been placed.

The last number of "Vermont Association Notes," a magazine published by the state committee of the Young Men's Christian association of Vermont, reproduced portraits of a number of men and women from the state who have been doing overseas work. Among them

Auction Sale

REAL ESTATE AND PERSONAL PROPERTY!

As I am leaving in a short time to make my home in the South, I will sell at public auction to the highest bidder, at my premises at Washington, Vt., on at 12:30 o'clock in the afternoon, the following described real estate and personal property:

MY HOME PLACE

—consisting of 7 acres, mostly tillage land; nice fruit orchard; the land is in a good state of cultivation and close to one of the best garden truck markets in New England. The buildings are in good condition, electric lights, running water and all modern conveniences. Barn is new and handy. The barn and house are nicely arranged for a much-needed doctor in town.

FURNITURE, DISHES, etc.: 1 oil stove, 1 fur coat, cap and gloves, 1 buffalo coat, 1 wolf robe, 4 gasoline lamps, 1 street gasoline lamp, kerosene lamps, chairs, 3 or 4 of the nice, large, easy kind; 1 music cabinet, stands, tables—none of them is a large extension table; 1 very old clock, 1 good Singer sewing machine, dishes of all kinds and varieties, 1 nice secretary, 1 bookcase, 1 chiffonier, books which include schoolbooks, novels, classics, and a full set of People's Encyclopedias, a lot of stone jars, nice pictures and good frames with glass, wash bowls and pitchers, and many other things not advertised. All this stuff is practically new, if you have seen it you know, if you have not, come and look it over.

Rain or shine, this sale will go on, as everyone here can get under cover if stormy during the auction. Sales less than $10, cash.

were those of Miss Nettie L. Robbins, whose mother, Mrs. Cora Robbins, lives in Randolph, and of Miss Laura J. Parker of Williston, who was principal of the high school at Brookfield during the 1917-18 term. In the fall of 1918 she was employed in the office of the state food administrator. She sailed for France on Jan. 20 and is located at the foot of Mt. Blanc.

The Awakening.
"I paint what I see," an art student once said to his master, complacently. "Well, the shock will come when you really see what you've painted," said the artist.—Boston Transcript.

Wasn't Appreciated.
"If life in these days of high prices is worth living," said Hannibal Horner, "think of the bargain it must have been in the days before the war."—Boston Transcript.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. His efforts to banish it brought out these little olive-colored tablets.

These pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel, but to take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets.

Most headaches, "biliousness" and that liver feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lumpy" and "heavy." Note how they "clear" clouded brain and how they "perk up" the spirits. 10c and 25c a box. All druggists.

ESTATE OF LAURA E. BANCROFT

State of Vermont, District of Washington, ss.

The honorable probate court for the district of Washington, to all persons interested in the estate of Laura E. Bancroft, late of the town of Barre, in said district, deceased, GREETING:

Whereas, said probate court, on the 19th day of April, 1919, Anne B. Perrin, guardian under will, in and for said district, in the said court, made application to file in said court a new bond, with sureties in substitution for her guardian's bond now on file in said court.

And it is ordered by said court that the 19th day of May, 1919, at the probate office in said Montpelier, be assigned for said bond application; and that notice thereof be given to all persons concerned, by publishing this order three weeks successively in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper circulating in that vicinity, in said district, previous to the time appointed.

THEREFORE, you are hereby notified to appear before said court, at the time and place aforesaid, and contest the filing of said bond, if you have cause.

Given under my hand at Montpelier, in said district, this 19th day of April, 1919.
